

Lutherans Will Dedicate Church

Dr. Gayler Falde, president of the California district of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will dedicate the new Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., on Sunday at 3 p.m.

Participating in the service will be the Rev. T. Arnold Thompson, director of Home Missions from Minneapolis, Minn., and the ministers of the Los Angeles Circuit.

At 10:45 a.m. there will be a service of entrance and dedication of the congregation.

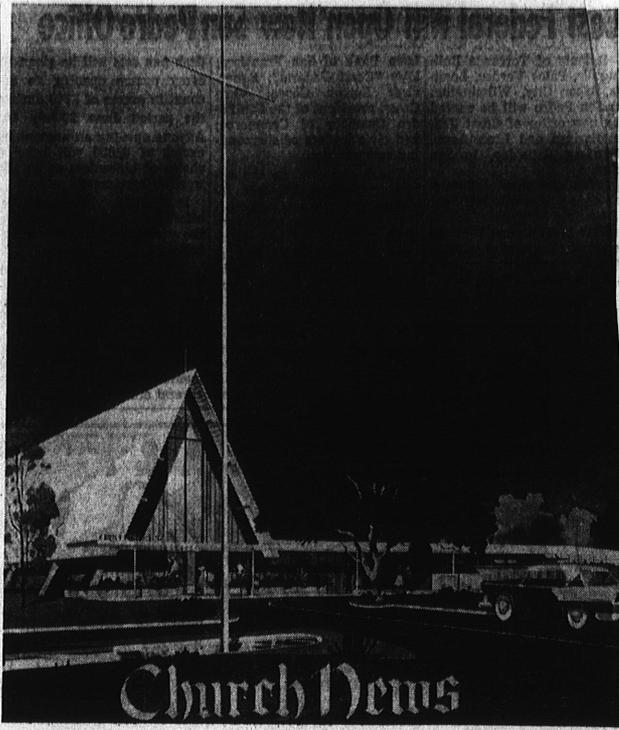

Evening Rites
The church will be dedicated to church music and Christian education Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m., with a choir concert and a message by the Rev. Glenn Midthun of San Luis Obispo. Directing the choir will be Walter Wittel and the organist will be Mrs. Clifford Bredman. Solos will be sung by Robert Guderson and Wittel. The Sunday school chorus, directed by Janet Myren, will sing two numbers. The church will be dedicated to the Women of Christ the King on Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., with Mrs. Willis of Lakewood, as the speaker. The church will be dedicated to the youth or the church on Saturday, July 6, at 7 p.m., with the Rev. Les Hoffman, San Pedro and Bernd Ulken, Germany, as speakers. Ulken is a youth leader in Germany and an athlete. He was in Moscow for the International Football Match between Russia and Western Germany.

370 Members
Christ the King Lutheran Church was organized on April 15, 1956, and has over 300 enrolled in Sunday School and has a membership of 370.

The architect for the new building was Edward D. Davies of Pasadena and the general contractor was Oliver Minniear of Torrance. Members of the building committee were Henry Gillie, Clifford Bredman, Irv Wilson, Vernon Shaw, Doris Thompson, Bill Sands, Elton Crump, C. M. Christensen, Douglas Johnson and Ed Myren. Rose Mary Ulland is the parish worker and the Rev. Maynard V. Midthun is the pastor.

COLLEGE NAME
Princeton college was known as the College of New Jersey until 1896.

Temple Menorah Names New Rabbi

Rabbi Henri E. Front, a chaplain with the U. S. Navy's Third Marine Division, will become spiritual leader at Temple Menorah starting on Monday. He recently returned from service on Okinawa.

He will officiate at his first Friday night religious services at Temple Menorah, 122 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, on Friday, July 12, at 8:15 p.m. An "onog shabbat" will be held in honor of the Fronts.

They will make their home in the South Bay area. He rejoined his wife, Regina, in San Francisco recently.

In 1950, as a freshman at the Hebrew Union College, he was elected class president; and, as a senior, he was again so elected. In 1953 he was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Hebrew Letters, and in the year of his ordination, 1956, won the degree of Master of Hebrew Letters.

While a rabbinic student, he was a counselor the opening year of the National Camp of the National Federation of Temple Youth. He acted as counselor at the Hill House at the Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and served on the staffs of several youth conclaves and camps.

Rev. Kuester Will Discuss Jesus Sunday

The Rev. H. Earl Kuester, pastor of Calvary Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Sunday will continue his series of sermons on the foundational doctrines of the Christian faith, at the duplicate services, 8:30 and 11 a.m. He will speak on the topic: "The Man Christ Jesus."

At the 7:30 evening service, Rev. Kuester will speak on: "When Zaccheus Met Jesus." The Ordinance of Baptism will be observed at the evening service.

On Sunday morning at both Sunday Schools, 9:45 and 11:00 o'clock, all children and youth classes will be promoted. Children graduating from the Primary to the Junior departments will each receive a new Bible.

The leaders, officers, board, and committee members of the church will go to the California Baptist Seminary at Covina for a Lay Development retreat Friday and Saturday.

The Vacation Bible School will be held July 8 to 19 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Registration of the children has begun and enrollment of around 400 is expected.

Beach Lot Open on 4th

The parking lot at Torrance Beach will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on July 4, according to the County Recreation Department.

The beach has a black-top parking area which may be used at 25 cents per car, as part of the county's recreation program. The parking lot will close at 8 p.m.

Local Students At Leadership Training Meet

Three youths from the First Lutheran Church who are getting up at 7 to attend classes, despite the fact that high school is out.

The trio — Phillip Waide, Carol Johnson, and Esther Gilbert — are attending a tri-state leadership training school now being held on the campus of the California Baptist Theological Seminary, Covina. It is sponsored by the California District Youth Committee of the American Lutheran Church.

4th Anniversary Rites Slated by Avalon Baptists

The Avalon Village Baptist Church, 451 7. 223rd St., will celebrate its fourth anniversary this Sunday, with the charter pastor, the Rev. Frank Ramsden, slated to return to speak at the 11 a.m. service.

Now pastor of the First Baptist Church of Crestline, Rev. Ramsden will take part in the festivities. New choir robes, which Mrs. Maxine Harris requested when she was named "Queen for a Day" on a TV program, will be officially dedicated.

Members of the congregation will bring basket lunches and spend the afternoon in fellowship. In the evening a film, "Martyred Men," will be shown at 7:30. This will tell the story of the death of the missionaries who were killed in Ecuador by savage Indians.

Sunday school classes are at 9:30 a.m. The church's youth program is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lee Worling and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb. The Rev. Henry J. Lansman is pastor of the church.

Rev. Stanton Named Again To Post Here

Rev. Walter Stanton, pastor at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, has been returned to his post to the fifth year.

The appointment was made at the church's conference in Anaheim June 19 to 21. Attending from the local church were Willard Haslam and Glenn W. Briny.

At the same meeting, Wendell Jones, former youth director at Central Church, was granted a probationer's license to preach. He is now attending Fuller Seminary and will be ordained when he graduates.

Rev. and Mrs. Stanton will leave July 1 on a vacation trip. They will take their son, John, to Sacramento, where he will be inducted into the Army. They will attend Fuller Bible Conference in the Santa Cruz Mountains for two weeks, and spend the rest of the time in northern California.

The Stantons also have two daughters, Sharon, a senior at Long Beach State, and Leah, a sophomore at El Camino.

30 Scouts Plan Trip To Canada Saturday

Thirty Boy Scouts from Troop 728 will set off Saturday morning on one of the big adventures of their young lives—a trip to Canada for which they have raised the entire cost.

Through various Scout group activities, the boys have raised $1700 to charter a bus which will take them to Canada to enjoy a vacation at a Scout camp there. Enroute, the boys will stay at Army bases and also will get a chance really to put into practice the things which they learned about camping out.

Money Raised
The money for the trip was raised by Christmas tree sales, paper drives, and other similar fund-raising ventures. The boys were given a big assist by their sponsors, Fern-Greenwood PTA.

Scoutmaster Herman Boodman said that after long debate, the boys had decided they would like to go to Canada as a unit. Originally, they had hoped to go to the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, but found that only a limited number could attend.

New Pastor Selected by First Baptist

The Rev. James W. Hardin has been named as new pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lomita, 26330 Hillcrest Ave.

Rev. Hardin came from Tucson, Ariz., where he served as superintendent of missions for the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention. A graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, he holds a bachelor of divinity and masters degree from Southwestern Theological Seminary.

During World War II, he served as a chaplain in the southwest Pacific and has done mission work with the Home Mission Board and in the Orient.

In Arizona, he led in the establishment of 14 new churches. His last mission work consisted in building a new congregation where 113 additions were made to the church in six months time.

He is married and has two sons, Gary and Larry.

'Armament' Named Topic

"Christian Armament" will be the sermon by the Rev. Truman M. Jolley at First Presbyterian Church, 1842 Gardena Blvd. Elizabeth DeVries, soprano, will sing "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" by Liddle. Senior Choir, directed by Florence Jolley, will sing "O Love How Deep" by Titcomb.

Church School for all ages meets at 9:20 a.m. Also at 9:20 a.m. the class for church membership will meet in the study, in preparation for reception into the church on July 7, Communion Sunday.

Mrs. Enestine McKinney and Mrs. William Dunston are co-chairmen of the vacation church school to be held July 8 to 19. Pre-registration can be made next Sunday before church school and after worship, according to Earl Mobley, chairman of Christian Education.

They discarded Mexico after considering health problems.

Adults to Go
They will be accompanied by Scoutmaster Boodman, a teacher at Fern-Greenwood, and two other adults, C. E. Baker, and C. E. Reintsma both fathers of boys in the troop.

'DESTINY' IS TOPIC ON SUNDAY

"Fulfilling Your Star of Destiny" will be the sermon topic of Dr. Earle D. Barnum at the Church of Religious Science, 508 S. Catalina Ave., Redond Beach, this Sunday in 11 a.m. rites.

This Sunday will be the first in a series of days which will honor special groups. The first group to be honored will be Masons, and in particular, the "Travelers' Club," a group of Masons who live in mobile homes.

This Sunday was chosen because it is the nearest Sunday to St. John's Day, and the ancient Masonic lodges were dedicated to St. John the Baptist and St. John the Divine. Modern lodges observe this day by going to church in a body. A special section of the church will be reserved for them.

The regular inspiration hour service will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, preceded by a luncheon. Coffee will be furnished but members will bring their own lunches.

Mission Will Become Anza Ave. Church

The West Torrance Baptist Mission, Spencer and Valerie Sts., will be known as the Anza Ave. Baptist Church, according to a vote taken at the organizational services last Sunday.

Services are held at 11 a.m. Sunday mornings, with Sunday school at 9:45 a.m., training union at 6:30 p.m., and evening worship at 7:30 p.m.

Presiding at the organizational service was Brother Edward Harness, superintendent of missions. Speakers of the day were Rev. C. D. Scott, pastor of the church; Rev. Bob Wells, pastor of the Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church, and Rev. J. W. Hardin, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lomita.

Brother Joe Daniels, associate educational director was in charge of music, with Mrs. Martha Fluke at the piano. Assisting in the services were Rev. H. M. Stuchbery, Long Beach; Rev. Garland Poteroff, Carol Davis, Bill Braughton, and Bob Griggs.
